Employment Verification for Husband/Wife Groups

Effective April 1, 2012, Employment Verification for Husband/Wife Groups forms will only be accepted when a new group that has only two eligible employees who are husband and wife* has not been in existence long enough to have payroll verification (Schedule C, K1s and/or W-2 forms). At renewal, as part of the recertification process, these groups will be required to provide the applicable payroll verification.

If the group is an established company, the Schedule C, K1s and/or W-2 forms must be available to satisfy payroll requirements.
