

Jim Lardiere
Senior Vice President
Savoy Associates

Jim Lardiere has worked in the employee benefits and group health insurance industry for many years, joining Savoy Associates as a Sales Account Executive in 1991. He was subsequently promoted to Vice President, New Business Development in 2000, and to his current position as Senior Vice President in 2007.

A licensed insurance producer in NJ, NY, PA & CT, Jim is an integral part of the Savoy Associates management team, oversees the Savoy Associates sales staff located in the firm's Florham Park, New York, and Hamilton offices, and shares in the responsibility for many new business initiatives at Savoy Associates.

After graduating from Villanova University with a BSBA in 1989, Jim's first job was in the group sales office at Equicor in New York City. He remained with the firm through its purchase by CIGNA in 1990 before leaving to join Savoy Associates in 1991.

Mr. Lardiere is an active member of the New Jersey Chapter of the Worldwide Employee Benefits Network (WEB), the Northern New Jersey Chapter of the Association of Health Underwriters and holds the position of Treasurer on the NNJAHU Chapter's board of officers.

Jim lives with his wife, Andrea, and daughters, Jillian and Elianna, in Basking Ridge, NJ.
